JUDGE EVANS.

The Louisville Man Catches On to a Lifetime Job.

Succeeds Judge Barr as District
Judge For Kentucky.

Washington, March 4.—The President to-day nominated Walter Evans, of Kentucky, to be Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Kentucky, thus settling a contest which has recently been of absorbing interest in the Kentucky delegation, and especially the Republican part of it.

A short time after the nomination was sent to the Senate, that body went into executive session and the appointment of Mr. Evans was confirmed without delay.

Mr. Evans was born in 1842 in Barren county; entered Federal army in 1861; began to practice law in 1864; elected to Legislature from Christian county in 1871; ran for Congress and was defeated in 1876; defeated for Governor in 1879; made Commissioner of Internal Revenue by President Arthur in 1883; returned to Louisville in 1885; member of fifty-fourth and fifty-fifth Congresses, and defeated for a third term by Oscar Turner, Democrat, last fall.

THE POLITICAL POT

Begins to Boil In Christian County.

Two Candidates Spoke Yesterday
And the Town Will Be Full of Them Friday.

Judge W. B. Fleming, Democratic aspirant for Attorney General, filled his appointment at the Court House yesterday, and a big crowd was on hand in spite of the inclement weather. Judge Fleming is a fine speaker and made an old-fashioned Democratic stump speech that roused his hearers and elicited much applause.

Hon. James Andrew Scott, of Frankfort, Ky., who is a candidate for the same office, arrived in the city Sunday night and was accorded a division of time by Mr. Fleming. At the conclusion of the latter's address, Mr. Scott was introduced and made a strong and eloquent speech in presenting his claims for the nomination he seeks.

Both speakers made fine addresses and impressed their hearers most favorably.

IN OTHER COUNTIES.

Instructions for Dempsey With Little Other Information Reported.

Louisville, March 4.—Reports from the counties of the First railroad commissioner's district give but little indication of interest in the county conventions, nearly all the correspondents simply reporting instructions for Dempsey.

Among the counties instructing for Dempsey are Daviess, Hancock, Union, Webster, Todd, Henderson, McLean, Caldwell, Warren, Muhlenberg, Hopkins and Fulton.

Christian, Trigg, Crittenden, Breckenridge and Hardin gave no instructions.

Lyon county, the home of Capt. Stone, instructed for Tandy.

Fulton county adopted a resolution condemning the Goebel election law.

Todd county adopted a resolution endorsing the Louisville Dispatch.

In Henderson county Morgan Stanley, a Hardin man, reported a resolution, instructing for Dempsey and naming Hardin delegates, but Judge Dorsey, a leader for Stone, jumped on Stanley's list and had the convention to authorize the chairman, Ad Young, to appoint delegates, and be named chiefly Stone men.

A QUIET CONVENTION.

An Agreed Case and Delegates Uninstructed.

The county convention Saturday was a quiet and good humored affair. The friends of all the gubernatorial candidates got together in the morning and agreed not to have a show of strength but approved a list of delegates giving all a fair representation. As a result of this agreement, 6 delegates are for Hardin, 5 for Goebel and 5 for Stone, the alternates being divided the same way.

Secretary Geo. E. Gary called the convention to order in the absence of the county Chairman and was elected Chairman and Walter S. Hale chosen Secretary of the convention. The only motion made was to ap-

Mr. Jas. R. Wood died at Nash- ville, Tenn., Saturday at noon. He had been in Dr. Stone's Sanitarium there for some time and his death was not unexpected.

His funeral services were held yesterday morning at 10 o'clock, at the Ninth street Presbyterian church, of which Mr. Wood was a member. The interment followed in Hopewell Cemetery.

MET ON MAIN TRACK.

Two Freight Trains Collide—Fireman Slightly Injured.

Two L. & N. freight trains col- lided at Kelly station Friday night and both engines were disabled. Two cars were also pretty badly damaged. Frank Harrison, fire- man on the north-bound train, was buried under a mass of coal in the tender and badly bruised, but not seriously injured. He lives in Nashville and was able to be taken home the next morning. The rest of the train men escaped injury. The trains had orders to meet at Kelly and the south-bound train arrived first and was standing on the main track when the north-bound train crashed into it. The accident caused no delay of other trains, as they could pass around the wreck by using the sidetrack.

NAMES REVEALED.

The Unknown Confederates Buried under the Latham Monument.

Mr. Henry C. Gant, President of the Bank of Hopkinsville, found in an old bank desk Friday a memo- randum-book belonging to George K. Anderson, of Cotton Gin, Tex., which disclosed the names of 101 unknown Confederate dead whose bodies are buried around the monument unveiled in 1896, erected by Mr. John C. Latham, of New York, at a cost of $14,000. The location of each grave with the name, rank, and regiment of each soldier is given. The dead soldiers be- longed to the First and Third Miss- issippi, Seventh Texas, Eighth Kentucky regiments and Forrest's cavalry. When the bodies were moved the bones were placed in one grave and it would not be possible now to identify them.
